About YWCA OF SPOKANE

The YWCA of Spokane is dedicated to eliminating racism, empowering women and promoting peace, justice, freedom and dignity for all. In 2015, YWCA of Spokane provided counseling, education, job readiness, outreach and shelter to more than 17,000 women and children. The YWCA of Spokane is the go-to place in the region for services that empower women and children, including childcare, early childhood education, work readiness resources, support for victims of domestic violence, and support for homeless youth and families. The organization is becoming one of the primary community resources for issues of racial and social justice in the community.
