YWCA Spokane Holds 13th Annual Spring Fling Benefit This April

A spring-themed champagne brunch and silent auction fundraiser dedicated to raising funds and awareness for vital programs and services.

Spokane, WA – April 7th, 2018

Raising critical funds benefiting over 13,000 women and children impacted by domestic violence, homelessness, and unemployment this year, YWCA Spokane asks the Spokane community to join them at their 13th annual Spring Fling champagne brunch and silent auction fundraiser, held Saturday, April 7th, 2018 at Anthony’s At The Falls, 510 N Lincoln, Spokane, WA 99201 from 10:00am to 12:30pm.

“We appreciate and applaud the support of all of our sponsors, especially the team at Anthony’s who donate their time to allow us to enjoy their excellent food, service and that amazing view while we raise funds to support our programs that serve women, children and families in crisis right here in our neighborhoods,” says Laura McAloon, Event Committee Chair and YWCA Spokane Board Member. “Spring Fling is always an inspiring event that raises vital funding to continue our fight to empower women and eliminate racism.”

TICKET REGISTRATION

Guests can purchase individual tickets for $60 a person or a table of 4 for $240 online at ywcaspokane.org or by calling 509-789-9305. Pre-registration is necessary due to limited seating. Attendees will join together with YWCA Spokane in the shared goal of supporting peace, justice, freedom and dignity for women, children, and families served through the agency’s domestic violence victim support services, child & youth programs, and through economic empowerment programs and services for women.
CORPORATE SPONSORSHIP

Event sponsors for Spring Fling 2018 include Dodson's Jewelers, McAloon Law, PLLC, Columbia Bank, and Anthony's At The Falls. The commitment of event sponsorship ensures YWCA Spokane is able to apply 100% of the proceeds raised during the event directly to programs and services. For corporate sponsorship information contact Dana Morris, Development Director of YWCA Spokane, at 509-742-0111 or email danam@ywcaspokane.org.
