YWCA Spokane CEO, Regina Malveaux,
Appointed To The YWCA USA Board of Directors

YWCA USA, which celebrates its 160th birthday this year and is one of the oldest and largest non-profit organizations dedicated to improving the lives of women, announced recently that after a nationwide recruiting process, 3 women joined the YWCA National Board of Directors including Regina Malveaux, CEO of YWCA Spokane.

Malveaux now serves on the organization’s national board of directors with 8 re-elected YWCA Board leaders. The appointment of the new board was ratified at YWCA USA’s last National Business Meeting in Washington, D.C. at the organization’s national conference. In March, Regina was part of the delegation of YWCA agencies from around the globe who attended the United Nations Commission on the Status of Women sessions in New York City.

ABOUT REGINA MALVEAUX

Malveaux began her YWCA career as a Legal Advocate at the YWCA of San Diego and previously served as Executive Director of the YWCA of South Hampton Roads. Malveaux is recognized as a tenacious advocate for women, youth and children, and has served on a number of boards aimed at advancing victim safety, women’s economic empowerment, and racial and social justice.

Malveaux currently serves on the boards of the Alliance for Gun Responsibility and Greater Spokane Incorporated. Malveaux holds an undergraduate degree in Social Policy from San Diego State University and a law degree from Howard University School of Law.

ABOUT YWCA SPOKANE
YWCA Spokane is a multi-service non-profit organization whose mission is eliminating racism, empowering women and promoting peace, justice, freedom and dignity for all. For 115 years this April, YWCA Spokane has been committed to empowering women in the Spokane and surrounding communities.

YWCA Spokane’s three umbrella programs include the Alternatives to Domestic Violence Program, Spokane County’s only state-recognized program for domestic violence; the Women’s Opportunity Center, an established Workforce Connection Site; and Child Services which includes four sites implementing the Early Childhood Education and Assistance Program. YWCA Spokane is also home to the uniquely collaborative Spokane Family Justice Center which includes YWCA legal advocates, and City and County law enforcement and prosecutors.

YWCA Spokane is the go-to place in the region for services that empower women and children, support for victims of domestic violence, work readiness resources, and early childhood education. The organization is also a key partner in coalitions in the community working on issues of racial and social justice. More information is available at ywcaspokane.org.
