

YWCA SPOKANE'S GOODGUYS PRESENT

JACKSON KATZ

JACKSON KATZ, Ph. D. | FEB 11

Internationally renowned educator, author, filmmaker, cultural theorist, and pioneering activist on issues of gender, race, and violence is coming to Spokane Feb 11, 2019.

Take a stand against domestic violence in our community by joining YWCA's GoodGuys and Jackson Katz as he explores the growing global movement of men working to promote gender equality and prevent gender violence.

WHO YWCA Spokane's GoodGuys are bringing internationally renowned speaker, Jackson Katz, to Spokane to explore men's leadership in the prevention of violence against women.

WHAT A public lecture provided by katz called "What Does It Mean To Be A Strong Man?" will provide a unique opportunity to gain new perspectives on a major health concern in Spokane and what we can do to help resolve a problem that takes a collective community approach.

WHEN Monday, February 11th from 5:30-7:30pm at Gonzaga University's John J. Hemmingson Center, 702 E Desmet Ave.

JOIN US Tickets are available for $10 a ticket or $100 for a set of 10. Registration or ticket sponsorship can be purchased online at ywcaspokane.org, or at YWCA Spokane, 930 N Monroe St, Spokane, WA 99201.

INFO ywcaspokane.org/jackson-katz
goodguys@ywcaspokane.org | 509-789-9312

Jackson Katz's
viral TED Talk,
"Violence Against Women
- It's A Men's Issue," has been viewed over 4 million times.

Supporting:

eliminating racism
empowering women

ywca

SPOKANE

SPONSORED BY

AVISTA[®]

Spokane International Airport

www.SpokaneAirports.net

What Does It Mean To Be A Strong Man?

SPONSOR A TICKET

Ticket Sponsorships are available if you or your organization would like to sponsor a group of 10 tickets or more for community members who would be unable to join this event due to their financial situation.

Register your ticket sponsorship at ywcaspokane.org/jackson-katz and YWCA Spokane will make sure your purchased tickets go to students, young adults, and other community members who would not be able to join us otherwise. Thank you so much for helping to ensure as many people as possible are able to join us for this critical talk.

THE FACTS

- Reducing family violence and trauma has been selected as one of three top community concern by the Spokane Regional Health District and Priority Spokane.
- 1 in 3 women and 1 in 4 men in Spokane will be victim to some sort of physical violence by an intimate partner within their lifetime.
- Domestic violence calls continue to be the number one call to 911.
- Additional facts about domestic violence in Spokane provided by the Spokane Regional Health District are available here.

MEDIA INTERVIEW

Katz has offered to be available for print interviews Thursday, January 31st and Friday, February 1st, 2019. In addition, Katz will also be available for one media interview on Tuesday, February 12th. If interested please notify Director of Communications, Erica Schreiber at ericas@ywcaspokane.org or call 509-789-9305.

ABOUT THE GOODGUYS

YWCA Spokane's GoodGuys is a growing movement of men in Spokane who are working to prevent domestic violence. "We need a powerful show of support for a detrimental issue in our community," expresses Manny Hochheimer, GoodGuys Co-Founder. "We invite men to join the GoodGuys and make a clear, strong, public statement that domestic violence is not okay and will not be accepted."

To learn more about YWCA Spokane's GoodGuys movement and how to get involved, visit ywcaspokane.org/good-guys or email goodguys@ywcaspokane.org.

EVENT SPONSOR

Underwriting for this event was provided by Avista and Spokane Airports. For corporate sponsorship information contact Dana Morris Lee, YWCA Spokane Chief Philanthropy Officer at 509-742-0111 or send an email to danam@ywcaspokane.org.